

Full program

English version

The UNESCO Chair in World Food Systems is happy to see you soon : save your first Friday of February for our 10th annual conference.

Friday 05 February 2021 (10am-4pm, CET Time)

On-line, with simultaneous translations in French, English and Spanish.

"BEING TOGETHER" - Food as a social bond

10.00 Opening

Damien Conaré, UNESCO Chair in World Food Systems, Montpellier SupAgro

10.15 Inaugural conference

John Coveney, Professor of Global Food, Culture and Health, Flinders University, Adelaide, Australia : Will we still be eating together ? Covid, confinement and the gastro-politics of commensality

Break 11.00-11.15

11.15 Mix / Mezze short videos, photos, interviews...

11.45-12.30 Food sociability spaces

Adolin Paul Egnankou, Institut d'ethno-sociologie, Université Félix Houphouët-Boigny,

Ivory Coast : « Le Garbadrôme : manger ensemble à Abidjan »

Anindita Dasgupta, Taylor's University, Malaysia : « Food courts in Malaysia »

Break 12.30-14

14.00 Remix / (re)Mezze

14.30-15.30 Round table

The effects of confinement : commensality, precariousness, the importance of digital

With :

- Olivier Lepiller, sociologist, CIRAD
- Nani Moré Ramon, cook, director of Menjadors Ecològics, Barcelona, Spain
- Eleonora Ceccaldi, researcher in cognitive sciences, University of Genoa, Italia

15.30-15.50 Welcome to the museum

"Virtual guided tour" of the CookBook exhibition by its curator, Nicolas Bourriaud,

Director of the Mo.Co. - Montpellier contemporain

15.50 Conclusion

Carolyn Steel, architect, writer and academic, Great-Britain

Your feedback about this symposium